Chicago, Aug. 26.—With motorists of the middle west riding on the cheapest fuel since the war, the prospects of even further gasoline price reductions appeared imminent today.

Chicago automobile drivers were buying gasoline for 19 cents a gallon as a result of an unexplained cut made by a Standard Oil Company in 11 middle west states. Motorists in sections of Kansas, Illinois, South Dakota and Missouri were enjoying even lower prices as a result of local price wars between national companies and small independents.

L. V. Nicholas, president of the National Petroleum Marketers Association, declared addition in reductions were likely throughout this section and the east.

The present drop is the beginning of an inevitable downward trend, said Nicholas. "The main cause of the drop is two-fold, the increased production of crude oil and the rapid improvement of refining processes."

COOLIDGE WILL INSIST ON HIS ECONOMY PLANS

PRESIDENT RESENTS PROPAGANDA FROM ARMY AND SHIPPING SOURCES

CUTS CAN BE MADE, HE SAYS,
WITHOUT IMPAIRING
EFFICIENCY

(By United Press)
Washington, Aug. 26.—President Coolidge is determined to carry out his plan of economy in governmental operation.

Mr. Coolidge resents what he regards as propaganda against his economy campaign, it was made clear at the summer White House today, and he will not regard with favor requests for further development of the national defense at this time.

Reports from Washington quoting army and shipping board officials as favoring new expenditures, today drew the disapproval of the president.

Mr. Coolidge does not take seriously dispatches from Washington purporting to reveal that the general staff of the army believes military forces will be made inefficient if further increases in appropriations are not made.

Mr. Coolidge also let it be known that he cannot understand that Chairman O'Connor of the shipping board is planning to withdraw the giant steamer Leviathan from the government-operated merchant marine, as intimated in dispatches.

The president thinks such withdrawal would cause a large loss to the government and he regards it as in opposition to his policy of economy.

It was pointed out that shipping is a highly competitive industry and intimated that this report might be propaganda for the purpose of damaging the government's business in favor of foreign lines.

In regard to the "big army" talk from Washington, the president has noticed that such discussion is perennial and he does not anticipate that the military chiefs will be able to get congress to increase their appropriation over the amount to be fixed by the president in the budget which is to be submitted at the opening of the session next December.

(By United Press)
Virginia, Minn., Aug. 26.—A fight against commercializing the waters of the border country — Mecca of thousands of tourists — was launched today by the Minnesota Arrowhead Association.

The Fort Frances Paper and Pulp Company has applied for permission to construct a series of dams along the international boundary lake region between Minnesota and Canada.

The projects would materially change the level of the lakes and streams along the border, it was contended at a public hearing here late Tuesday. This would seriously affect the future of the Arrowhead country as a national playground.

James Harper, Duluth, president of the Arrowhead Association, declared the projects would ruin the north country from the standpoint of tourists. A nation-wide campaign is being organized. Harper will appoint a committee of 15 to direct the campaign.

OPTIONS NOTED IN GULL LAKE SECTOR NEAR CITY

ROCKY POINT SITE, PINE HAR-BOR INN ARE IN-SPECTED

ALSO PROPERTY OF WALTER M.
COBBAN, JOHN M. BYE,
ETC.

Rumors concerning the purchase of Gull lake shore and other lake property by William Wrigley, Jr., millionaire chewing gum king, and other wealthy men of Chicago and Cincinnati, are becoming more current, and leads the public to believe that something really big "is in the wind" for the development of lake property in the Brainerd district.

C. E. Anderson, proprietor of Rocky Point resort on the west side of Gull lake, is quoted as saying that an option has been taken on his property which will be exercised in the event that about 800 acres adjoining can be purchased at the desired figure. The party taking this option was thought to be Mr. Wrigley's secretary. It is understood that land in Michigan or Wisconsin is also being considered.

Other sites on Gull lake have also been inspected, it is said, and offers made to their owners. These include the Gust Almqvist resort, "Pine Harbor Inn," the Walter Cobban summer home and others in that vicinity. It is also understood that several locations, including that of John M. Bye, on the east side of Gull lake were considered. Mr. Bye is out of town on his vacation, so that this report could not be substantiated.

Improvements at the south end of Gull lake, being made by Kansas parties, are to include a golf course as well as other recreational advantages, as a part of the plotting of lake shore property. This interest in the Gull lake district bids fair to expand to other sections in the Brainerd district, and much is hoped for in the line of improvements by next season.

A special query addressed to William Wrigley, Jr., at Chicago, by the United Press of St. Paul, brought the response from his secretary that Mr. Wrigley was not in Chicago at present and the secretary knew nothing of any reputed lake deals.

(By United Press)
San Francisco, Aug. 26.—Dorothy Ellingson, 17-year-old matricide, today was scheduled to start a state prison term of from one to 10 years.

Standing before Judge Loderback, Dorothy tossed back her head and looked at the court in a saucy manner as the words, "for the term prescribed by law" were pronounced.

The former jazz girl appeared to greet the sentence with eagerness, bearing out her often-proclaimed desire to "get it over with."

OPTIONS NOTED IN GULL LAKE SECTOR NEAR CITY

ROCKY POINT SITE, PINE HARBOR INN ARE INSPECTED

ALSO PROPERTY OF WALTER M. COBBAN, JOHN M. BYE, ETC.

Rumors concerning the purchase of Gull lake shore and other lake property by William Wrigley, Jr., millionaire chewing gum king, and other wealthy men of Chicago and Cincinnati, are becoming more current, and leads the public to believe that something really big "is in the wind" for the development of lake property in the Brainerd district.

C. E. Anderson, proprietor of Rocky Point resort on the west side of Gull lake, is quoted as saying that an option has been taken on his property which will be exercised in the event that about 800 acres adjoining can be purchased at the desired figure. The party taking this option was thought to be Mr. Wrigley's secretary. It is understood that land in Michigan or Wisconsin is also being considered.

Other sites on Gull lake have also been inspected, it is said, and offers made to their owners. These include the Gust Almqvist resort, "Pine Harbor Inn," the Walter Cobban summer home and others in that vicinity. It is also understood that several locations, including that of John M. Bye, on the east side of Gull lake were considered. Mr. Bye is out of town on his vacation, so that this report could not be substantiated.

Improvements at the south end of Gull lake, being made by Kansas parties, are to include a golf course as well as other recreational advantages, as a part of the plotting of lake shore property. This interest in the Gull lake district bids fair to expand to other sections in the Brainerd district, and much is hoped for in the line of improvements by next season.

A special query addressed to William Wrigley, Jr., at Chicago, by the United Press of St. Paul, brought the response from his secretary that Mr. Wrigley was not in Chicago at present and the secretary knew nothing of any reputed lake deals.

BOODLE BAG WITH MANY JEWELS LOST

UPSETS WHITE BEAR YACHT CLUB AND WOMEN GOLFERS

BAG WAS PROPERTY OF MRS. H. D. RAYMOND OF CHICAGO

(By United Press)
White Bear, Aug. 26.—Disappearance of a silver boodle bag containing an $1,800 diamond bar pin and $300 in cash has upset the White Bear Yacht club and its score of visiting women golfers.

The bag was the property of Mrs. H. D. Raymond, Chicago, who was defeated in Tuesday's championship fight of the Women's Western Golf meet by Mrs. Lee Mida, also of Chicago.

The bag apparently was removed from the women's shower room within a period of ten minutes while Mrs. Raymond was in the showers.

ROTARY RECORD

MADE IN JULY

With 39 Clubs in 9th District, Brainerd Tops List With 93.12 Per Cent

With thirty-nine clubs in the ninth district, Brainerd topped the list with an average per cent of 93.12 and next in line was Detroit with 93.07, Wahpeton with 93, Northfield with 91.7, Fargo with 90.92.

The attendance of visitors a week ago Tuesday was almost as large as the peak reached at the August 11th session. Walt Wieland first introduces the various guests and their respective hosts and then follows up by calling on the visiting Rotarians to give their names, clubs and classifications. Oklahoma, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and other states were well represented.

Speaker of Day

William F. Worcester of Evanston, Ill., guest of Gil Chadbourne, spoke on "Co-Insurance, Depreciation and Appraisal." His little joke on an insurance policy created merriment. He told of a modern Robinson Crusoe who luckily found his insurance policy and its many "provisions" saved him from starvation.

The need of appraisal of real estate, buildings and other material things was stressed. Some concerns consider that they have enough insurance if they are carrying up to 80 per cent of their book value. In the case of a fire loss, it is the actual cash value of the property that must be considered, the value at the time of the fire, not at the time that you purchased the property or built it, as the case may be, with so much depreciation of per year. We must consider what it would cost today to buy that property and then what it is worth in its present condition, as compared with new.

Musical Program

The soprano solos by Mrs. Minor Andrews (nee Miss Betty Armstrong) were much appreciated. Mrs. Andrews has a full, resonant tone, and clear enunciation. The last time she sang in Brainerd was for the Elks. Her accompaniments were played by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland.

Session on Aug. 25th

Miss Lois Chadbourne sang two soprano solos on Tuesday, Aug. 25, and was in fine voice, her accompaniments being played by Miss Effie Drexler. Prof. Carey spoke of the flower show. Rev. Fred Errington gave the address of the day and urged Rotary to put in practice its ideals. That was the hardest task facing all luncheon clubs, to translate into deeds their idealism.

Rev. Errington was a member of the local Lions club and at Moorhead joined the Kiwanis. He was a delegate to the international convention of Kiwanis and has addressed many luncheon clubs.

FLOWER SHOW

CLOSED TODAY

Claimed to Have Been One of Most Successful in History

MANY VISITORS PRESENT

Interest Shown is Very Gratifying to the Society

The Crow Wing County Garden Flower Society's annual flower show closes today in a blaze of glory, being the most successful that has been held by this organization during its short existence.

Hundreds of very interested visitors attended the exhibition of dahlias, gladioli and other garden flowers on Tuesday afternoon and evening and on this afternoon. The interest shown in this year's show was very gratifying to the society and speaks an even better show next year.

L. P. Hall was awarded the grand sweepstakes prize in the dahlia class, with his "Paul Michael" a beautiful yellow bloom. Mr. Hall received the silver loving cup donated by the First National bank.

Mrs. E. O. Webb was awarded the grand sweepstakes prize in the gladioli class, with a "Francis Pendleton," a pink flowered dahlia. She received the silver loving cup donated by the Citizens State bank.

The garden flower society gives special credit to the committee of ladies who had in charge the task of decorating the court house for this show. The decorations were beautiful, and required a great deal of time and labor in their arrangement. Evergreens, including tamaracs boughs, were used in profusion for the background of the exhibits.

A complete list of all prize winners in the show, together with the donors of prizes, will be available for Thursday's Dispatch.

ROTARY RECORD MADE IN JULY

With 39 Clubs in 9th District, Brainerd Tops List With 93.12 Per Cent

With thirty-nine clubs in the ninth district, Brainerd topped the list with an average per cent of 93.12 and next in line was Detroit with 93.07, Wahpeton with 93, Northfield with 91.7, Fargo with 90.92.

The attendance of visitors a week ago Tuesday was almost as large as the peak reached at the August 11th session. Walt Wieland first introduces the various guests and their respective hosts and then follows up by calling on the visiting Rotarians to give their names, clubs and classifications. Oklahoma, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and other states were well represented.

Speaker of Day

William F. Worcester of Evanston, Ill., guest of Gil Chadbourne, spoke on "Co-Insurance, Depreciation and Appraisal." His little joke on an insurance policy created merriment. He told of a modern Robinson Crusoe who luckily found his insurance policy and its many "provisions" saved him from starvation.

The need of appraisal of real estate, buildings and other material things was stressed. Some concerns consider that they have enough insurance if they are carrying up to 80 per cent of their book value. In the case of a fire loss, it is the actual cash value of the property that must be considered, the value at the time of the fire, not at the time that you purchased the property or built it, as the case may be, with so much depreciation off per year. We must consider what it would cost today to buy that property and then what it is worth in its present condition, as compared with now.

Musical Program

The soprano solos by Mrs. Minor Andrews (nee Miss Betty Armstrong) were much appreciated. Mrs. Andrews has a full, resonant tone, and clear enunciation. The last time she sang in Brainerd was for the Elks. Her accompaniments were played by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland.

Session on Aug. 25th

Miss Lois Chadbourne sang two soprano solos on Tuesday, Aug. 25, and was in fine voice, her accompaniments being played by Miss Effie Drexler. Prof. Carey spoke of the flower show. Rev. Fred Errington gave the address of the day and urged Rotary to put in practice its ideals. That was the hardest task facing all luncheon clubs, to translate into deeds their idealism.

Rev. Errington was a member of the local Lions club and at Moorhead joined the Kiwanis. He was a delegate to the international convention of Kiwanis and has addressed many luncheon clubs.

"I Can't Spend It When I Haven't Got It"

This is the way one young fellow puts it. "I can't spend money when it's in the bank," he says.

He has learned that loose change in the pocket has a habit of dissolving—disappearing—slipping away mysteriously. And the hole through which it slips is at the top.

No, it isn't human nature to hang onto a loose dollar when it is continually calling on you to spend it. The safest way is to put that dollar in a savings account and then tell yourself it is gone. Forget it entirely.

Then some bright morning you'll wake up to find yourself in possession of a nice big bank account.

Dimes soon become dollars in a savings account. They take root in the fertile soil of compound interest and grow and grow. Come in and talk to us about a savings account.

FLOWER SHOW CLOSED TODAY

Claimed to Have Been One of Most Successful in History

MANY VISITORS PRESENT

Interest Shown is Very Gratifying to the Society

The Crow Wing County Garden Flower Society's annual flower show closes today in a blaze of glory, being the most successful that has been held by this organization during its short existence.

Hundreds of very interested visitors attended the exhibition of dahlias, gladioli and other garden flowers on Tuesday afternoon and evening and on this afternoon. The interest shown in this year's show was very gratifying to the society and speaks an even better show next year.

L. P. Hall was awarded the grand sweepstakes prize in the dahlia class, with his "Paul Michael" a beautiful yellow bloom. Mr. Hall received the silver loving cup donated by the First National bank.

Mrs. E. O. Webb was awarded the grand sweepstakes prize in the gladioli class, with a "Francis Pendleton," a pink flowered dahlia. She received the silver loving cup donated by the Citizens State bank.

The garden flower society gives special credit to the committee of ladies who had in charge the task of decorating the court house for this show. The decorations were beautiful, and required a great deal of time and labor in their arrangement. Evergreens, including tamarack boughs, were used in profusion for the background of the exhibits.

A complete list of all prize winners in the show, together with the donors of prizes, will be available for Thursday's Dispatch.

RAILWAYS SHOW CO-OPERATIVE SPIRIT

Will Give More Attention to Advertising of Brainerd Lake Region

FOLLOWS RAILMEN BANQUET

Minneapolis & St. Louis Ry. Co. to Distribute Literature on Lake Country

Railways entering Minnesota will give more attention to the advertising of the Brainerd lake region in the future than they have in the past, as a result of the meeting sponsored by the local Lions club on last Wednesday, at Breezy Point when nearly 200 business men met passenger traffic officials of some 10 or 12 railroads for the purpose of securing publicity for this section.

How favorably the roads were impressed by this meeting is reflected in a letter received by the Lions club from the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad Company by its passenger traffic manager, J. A. Lucey. Mr. Lucey could not attend the Breezy Point meeting, but was represented by his assistant, W. K. Adams. The passenger traffic manager's letter shows the favorable attitude taken by his line, and is as follows:

"I have received a report from our Mr. Adams, division passenger and freight agent, covering your meeting Wednesday night. Thank you very much for the nice way in which he was received and for the hospitality extended.

"We shall be very glad to assist you in every way possible in your laudable effort to give prominence to the lake region in your vicinity, and in connection with your conversation with Mr. Adams regarding literature, please forward at any time any advertising matter that you would like to have us handle, and I shall see that it is properly distributed by our agents in Minnesota, South Dakota, Iowa and Illinois."

The Lions club feels that with this co-operative spirit on the part of the railroads, the Brainerd lake region may confidently look forward to a great deal of constructive publicity in the future, which will result in a substantial increase in the number of summer tourists visiting this section. The club will be glad to receive advertising matter concerning the Brainerd playground at any time for distribution to the railroads entering the state. Much can be accomplished if this advertising matter is distributed during the winter and before the tourists make their plans for next season.

ELKS CONVENTION REVIEWS GIVEN

Looking over the exchange desk at the Brainerd Dispatch, one finds these nice allusions to the recent Elks state convention held in Brainerd:

Bemidji Daily Pioneer

A very enjoyable convention is reported by the Bemidji delegates who attended the annual state meeting of the Elks held Thursday and Friday at Brainerd and Saturday at Breezy Point Lodge, near Pequot. W. F. Marcum and A. J. Naylor of Bemidji were in attendance. Mr. Naylor returning home Saturday morning and Mr. Marcum Saturday night.

Mrs. Marcum went to Pequot Saturday morning and Mr. Marcum met her there and together they went to Breezy Point, where an all-day outing completed the annual session.

That Breezy Point is an elegant place for such an outing is the comment of the Bemidji visitors, who were surprised at the size and beauty of the Fawcett resort.

Little Falls Daily Transcript

The lobby of the Little Falls Elks home will soon be graced by the presence of two silver loving cups—trophies won at Breezy Point Saturday by Little Falls Elks entries in tournaments conducted there as part of the entertainment program of the Elks state convention.

The Little Falls golf team, composed of J. Sherman Levis, Dr. J. B. Holst, Fred J. Miller and Dr. W. H. K. Moyer, easily defeated its opponents, a team from Duluth, in the links event and brought back a beautiful trophy cup. George Fortier of Little Falls was awarded the trophy cup in the fancy diving event, being given first place. Second place in the tourney went to a man from Winona. Harold Bird, who went with Fortier to represent Little Falls, gave a splendid exhibition of diving which was said by onlookers to be far superior to the work of the Winona man, but inasmuch as he was not a member of the local lodge he was not considered in the awarding of prizes.

George Fortier also entered the tennis tournament as a representative of the Little Falls lodge but his opponent won two sets straight. E. V. Wetzel and Edward J. Porten were the local entrants in the trap-shooting event. First place went to a Minneapolis team of which Rosea Fawcett was a member.

Both silver cups have been presented to the Elks lodge by their winners and a movement has already been started to provide, through subscription, a glass case in which they will be placed for display.

ADDITION TO CITY BUSINESS

Gup Harper, Registered Optometrist, Locating in Brainerd

PUTS IN LARGE STOCK

Mr. Harper Comes to This City Well Equipped For His Profession

Guy Harper, registered optometrist, is locating in Brainerd, and is putting in a complete line of optical goods in the E. A. Page jewelry store on Laurel street, as a new department in that establishment.

Mr. Harper comes to the city very well equipped for his profession. He is a graduate optometrist, with twelve years experience in the twin cities and on the Misabe range.

He will install the most modern and complete machinery and apparatus used in optometry, in an effort to give citizens of Brainerd and the surrounding country the best service possible.

Mr. Page has for some time been contemplating the addition of such a department to be operated in conjunction with his jewelry store, but has hesitated because of the difficulty of finding a manager with the experience and the equipment to properly handle it. He feels very fortunate in having secured Mr. Harper who has all of these requirements.

Mr. Harper is finishing an optometry room in the Page store which will be used exclusively for his line of work, and will be the only one in this section of the state that is so thoroughly equipped.

The optometrist is a married man

15 YEAR BOY HURT BY AUTOS

Jay Burton, Son of Mrs. O. E. Burton, Taken to Hospital

ACCIDENT IN N. E. BRAINERD

First Car Struck Him, Second Car Had 2 Wheels Pass Over Him

Jay Burton, age 15 years, son of Mrs. O. E. Burton, 314 Fourth avenue, Northeast, was severely injured by an automobile about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, and is confined to the hospital as a result.

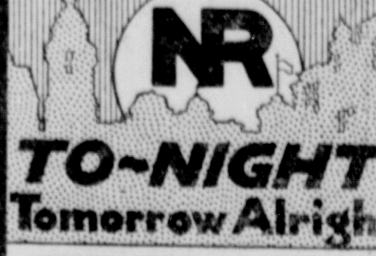

The accident occurred at the corner of Mill and Ash avenues, near the Anderson grocery store. Jay was crossing the street when a Hupmobile, driven by Miss Agnes Fox struck him and knocked him down. He was just getting up, when a second car coming back of the Hupmobile, hit him, throwing him to the ground again, two wheels passing over his body, it is reported.

He was rushed to Northwestern hospital where his injuries were given immediate attention. He was unconscious for some time after being removed to the hospital. Dr. R. A. Beise was called and after a careful examination found that no bones were broken.

The boy was badly bruised about the face, head, chest, arms and back, and sustained a cut on the face. It is believed that there are no internal injuries. The doctor stated this morning that his patient was much improved, and that he felt it only a matter of a few days until he would be able to get about again.

Just how the accident occurred could not be learned. One report is to the effect that the Burton boy was walking across the street backward, talking to friends that he had left behind, and did not see the automobiles approaching. At the hospital the owner of the car following the Hupmobile gave his name as Owen McDevitt. He was driving a Ford. No arrests were made pending the recovery of young Burton.

RAILWAYS SHOW CO-OPERATIVE SPIRIT

Will Give More Attention to Advertising of Brainerd Lake Region

FOLLOWS RAILMEN BANQUET

Minneapolis & St. Louis Ry. Co. to Distribute Literature on Lake Country

Railways entering Minnesota will give more attention to the advertising of the Brainerd lake region in the future than they have in the past, as a result of the meeting sponsored by the local Lions club on last Wednesday, at Breezy Point when nearly 200 business men met passenger traffic officials of some 10 or 12 railroads for the purpose of securing publicity for this section.

How favorably the roads were impressed by this meeting is reflected in a letter received by the Lions club from the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad Company by its passenger traffic manager, J. A. Lucey. Mr. Lucey could not attend the Breezy Point meeting, but was represented by his assistant, W. K. Adams. The passenger traffic manager's letter shows the favorable attitude taken by his line, and is as follows:

"I have received a report from our Mr. Adams, division passenger and freight agent, covering your meeting Wednesday night. Thank you very much for the nice way in which he was received and for the hospitality extended.

"We shall be very glad to assist you in every way possible in your laudable effort to give prominence to the lake region in your vicinity, and in connection with your conversation with Mr. Adams regarding literature, please forward at any time any advertising matter that you would like to have us handle, and I shall see that it is properly distributed by our agents in Minnesota, South Dakota, Iowa and Illinois."

The Lions club feels that with this co-operative spirit on the part of the railroads, the Brainerd lake region may confidently look forward to a great deal of constructive publicity in the future, which will result in a substantial increase in the number of summer tourists visiting this section. The club will be glad to receive advertising matter concerning the Brainerd playground at any time for distribution to the railroads entering the state. Much can be accomplished if this advertising matter is distributed during the winter and before the tourists make their plans for next season.

ELKS CONVENTION REVIEWS GIVEN

Looking over the exchange desk at the Brainerd Dispatch, one finds these nice allusions to the recent Elks state convention held in Brainerd:

Bemidji Daily Pioneer

A very enjoyable convention is reported by the Bemidji delegates who attended the annual state meeting of the Elks held Thursday and Friday at Brainerd and Saturday at Breezy Point Lodge, near Pequot. W. F. Marcum and A. J. Naylor of Bemidji were in attendance. Mr. Naylor returning home Saturday morning and Mr. Marcum Saturday night.

Mrs. Marcum went to Pequot Saturday morning and Mr. Marcum met her there and together they went to Breezy Point, where an all-day outing completed the annual session.

That Breezy Point is an elegant place for such an outing is the comment of the Bemidji visitors, who were surprised at the size and beauty of the Fawcett resort.

Little Falls Daily Transcript

The lobby of the Little Falls Elks home will soon be graced by the presence of two silver loving cups—trophies won at Breezy Point Saturday by Little Falls Elks entries in tournaments conducted there as part of the entertainment program of the Elks state convention.

The Little Falls golf team, composed of J. Sherman Levis, Dr. J. B. Holst, Fred J. Miller and Dr. W. H. K. Moyer, easily defeated its opponents, a team from Duluth, in the links event and brought back a beautiful trophy cup. George Fortier of Little Falls was awarded the trophy cup in the fancy diving event, being given first place. Second place in the tourney went to a man from Winona. Harold Bird, who went with Fortier to represent Little Falls, gave a splendid exhibition of diving which was said by onlookers to be far superior to the work of the Winona man, but inasmuch as he was not a member of the local lodge he was not considered in the awarding of prizes.

George Fortier also entered the tennis tournament as a representative of the Little Falls lodge but his opponent won two sets straight. E. V. Wetzel and Edward J. Porten were the local entrants in the trap-shooting event. First place went to a Minneapolis team of which Roscoe Fawcett was a member.

Both silver cups have been presented to the Elks lodge by their winners and a movement has already been started to provide, through subscription, a glass case in which they will be placed for display.

PUTS IN LARGE STOCK

Mr. Harper Comes to This City Well Equipped For His Profession

Guy Harper, registered optometrist, is locating in Brainerd, and is putting in a complete line of optical goods in the E. A. Page jewelry store on Laurel street, as a new department in that establishment.

Mr. Harper comes to the city very well equipped for his profession. He is a graduate optometrist, with twelve years experience in the twin cities and on the Misabe range.

He will install the most modern and complete machinery and apparatus used in optometry, in an effort to give citizens of Brainerd and the surrounding country the best service possible.

Mr. Page has for some time been contemplating the addition of such a department to be operated in conjunction with his jewelry store, but has hesitated because of the difficulty of finding a manager with the experience and the equipment to properly handle it. He feels very fortunate in having secured Mr. Harper who has all of these requirements.

Mr. Harper is finishing an optometry room in the Page store which will be used exclusively for his line of work, and will be the only one in this section of the state that is so thoroughly equipped.

The optometrist is a married man

15 YEAR BOY HURT BY AUTOS

Jay Burton, Son of Mrs. O. E. Barton, Taken to Hospital

ACCIDENT IN N. E. BRAINERD

First Car Struck Him, Second Car Had 2 Wheels Pass Over Him

Jay Burton, age 15 years, son of Mrs. O. E. Barton, 314 Fourth avenue, Northeast, was severely injured by an automobile about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, and is confined to the hospital as a result.

The accident occurred at the corner of Mill and Ash avenues, near the Anderson grocery store. Jay was crossing the street when a Hupmobile, driven by Miss Agnes Fox struck him and knocked him down. He was just getting up, when a second car coming back of the Hupmobile, hit him, throwing him to the ground again, two wheels passing over his body, it is reported.

He was rushed to Northwestern hospital where his injuries were given immediate attention. He was unconscious for some time after being removed to the hospital. Dr. K. A. Beise was called and after a careful examination found that no bones were broken.

The boy was badly bruised about the face, head, chest, arms and back, and sustained a cut on the face. It is believed that there are no internal injuries. The doctor stated this morning that his patient was much improved, and that he felt it only a matter of a few days until he would be able to get about again.

Just how the accident occurred could not be learned. One report is to the effect that the Burton boy was walking across the street backward, talking to friends that he had left behind, and did not see the automobile approaching. At the hospital the owner of the car following the Hupmobile gave his name as Owen McDevitt. He was driving a Ford. No arrests were made pending the recovery of young Burton.

THE MILLIONAIRES ARE COMING

WHAT has given California and Florida the great impetus? It's the millionaires, the men with money to develop a region and who, by building their own palaces of homes, attract others to the section.

Wealth penned up in safety deposit vaults does not help the Brainerd Lake Region or any other section. But wealth, set in motion, gives an impetus to a whole wide section. Brainerd and the Lake Region welcome the man who has been successful in the stock market, in big business, in merchandising gum, in national transportation, in the world of letters, of art, of achievement. We say, right here in the Brainerd Lake Region, is the place to have real enjoyment, to fish, to hunt, to motor, to swim, to breathe the pine-laden air. The world of sportsmanship is a broad fraternity and we welcome the millionaire. You big boys are missing many of the good things of life by not emigrating to the Brainerd Lake Region.

Here is where the whole family can attain a coat of healthful tan, where you can play golf, where every man will treat you as a real neighbor and friend. No artificial life. Your wife and children will take as keen a delight in fishing and other outdoor sports as you do.

Stories current in the Brainerd Lake Region took on the most roseate hue when it became noised about that William Wrigley, Jr., the chewing gum king, was heading a group of Chicago "Gold Coast" and Cincinnati capitalists who were to secure a block of 800 acres on Gull lake, twelve miles from Brainerd, and build fifty palatial millionaires' homes, rivalling the best that Hollywood, Miami or Los Angeles possesses.

Gull lake is but one of the fine lakes in our great Brainerd Lake Region. There are 700 lakes within easy driving distance of Brainerd. Our region has received added recognition by the announcement that the $700,000 paving project, Little Falls to Brainerd, is to be set in motion this year.

WORKING WITH PEOPLE

ONE of the greatest assets in our lake country is the people we draw here. For instance, near Pequot a group of Minneapolis Symphony orchestra artists have quite a colony. They have entered heartily in the community spirit prevailing and have given freely of their talents, thus assisting to make our coming Crow Wing county fair the peer of any county fair in the world of music.

When we find such world-famous artists like our friends Richard Lindenhahn and Herman Rossenroth going to Crosby to hear the Range band play there, it proves a real inspiration to the whole musical world in this county. On September 1, Brainerd Day at the fair, a special quartet composed of Messrs. Rossenroth, Lindenhahn, Wagner and Damm will play. We gratefully acknowledge the honors paid our agricultural society by these artists of the Minneapolis Symphony and by Mr. Damm, director of the Minneapolis municipal band. In such acts as these they are doing valiant service in spreading the knowledge of real music. True, many a musician can devote himself entirely to fishing and other recreation while on his vacation, but these men have responded in wonderful manner and their efforts should be appreciated by overwhelming attendance at the county fair.

In addition to these headliners, the fair has also assembled the Brainerd Municipal band, the Brainerd Ladies band which is featured in the Elks convention pictures taken, Captain Billy Fawcett's Breezy Point Collegian Aces orchestra, and the Range band of Crosby.

AT THE ROTARY CLUB

ROTARY club dinners are getting to be regular reunions. One meeting a short time ago registered 20 visiting Rotarians. Last week was almost as good. That injunction, that a Rotarian should keep up his attendance, is followed faithfully in our lake region and visiting Rotarians from a dozen states are frequently at the Ransford hotel on a Tuesday noon, where the luncheons are held.

As stated by Dr. John Abernethy of Oklahoma, the thing that stays with a man, in addition to the loving remembrance of our lakes and streams and woods, is the hearty handclasp of friendship one receives in our lake country.

That people like this country is evidenced by the fact that a Chicago family summering in the north section of Crow Wing county, so impressed by the beauties of this region, regarded the little cemetery near the lake as a more suitable resting place for wife and mother, than smoky, noisy, hurly-burly Chicago. And now in later years, when they come to spend their annual vacation here, they will visit the shrine of the departed one, knowing she sleeps well near the lakes she loved so well.

WAR AGAINST MASHERS

BRAINERD is interested in the war against mashers which Park Commissioner H. C. Wenzel is waging. Mr. Wenzel wants the St. Paul park system made a safe place for women, girls and children and resents the mashing tactics or rowdiness of a certain class of young men.

For years Mr. Wenzel and his large family have spent their summers near the federal dam on Gull lake and we consider the Wenzel family as "one of us." Mr. Wenzel has brought the park system of St. Paul to a high state of perfection, in fact, at the last election he scored such a tremendous vote as to give him a greater majority than any other candidate on the ticket.

Mr. Wenzel is a family man and as such the interest of the home appeals to him.

PLANS are under way for the development of the river barge line from Illinois to St. Paul. When such an industrial commissioner like Colonel J. H. Brittin goes after such business, then results can be expected. It will be noted that Col. Brittin is the kind of a genius who gives out news after he has accomplished something. Every move he makes spells more business for St. Paul and the city may well consider itself fortunate in having such a man at the helm of material civic affairs.

ANSWER IS FILED TO SALARY SUIT AGAINST BIG THREE

St. Paul, Aug. 26.—An answer was filed to the action pending in Ramsey county court against the state commission on administration and finance.

J. E. Markham, deputy attorney general, prepared the answer. The action was brought by members of the state railroad and warehouse commission against the finance commission and Ray P. Chase, state auditor, to compel the issuance of warrants for increased salaries allowed five employees of the railroad commission.

The salaries were increased in June before the law reorganizing the state government became effective. The increases were disallowed by the finance commission members after they took office on July 1.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Brainerd Folks

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Brainerd resident. Who could ask for a better example?

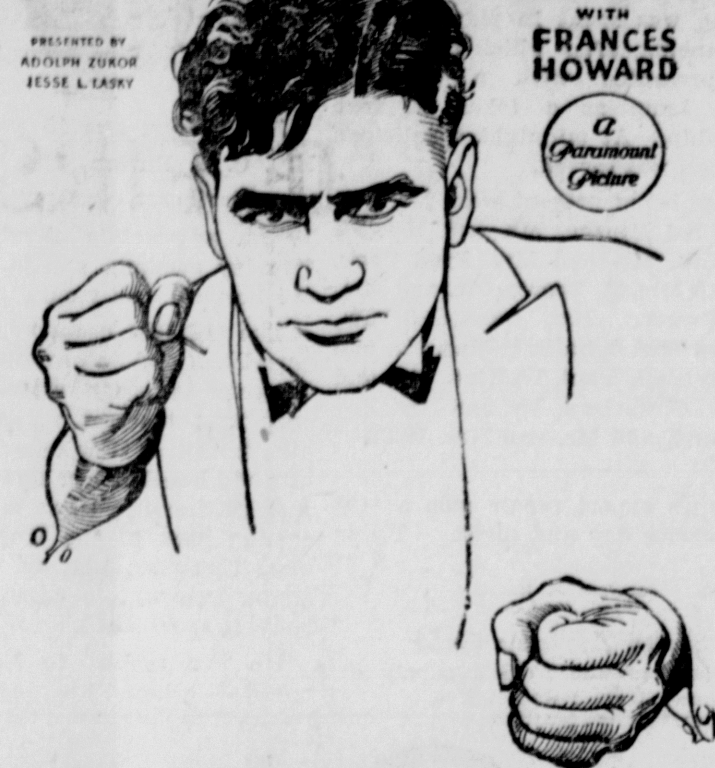

Peter Paulson, 402 Oak St., W., says: "I slipped and wrenched my back. For several days I was all in and could hardly take care of my work. My kidneys acted too frequently and I had no ambition to do anything. I read about Doan's Pills and was led to try them. They soon relieved me."

A FEW YEARS LATER Mr. Paulson added: "Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble. I have had no return of the complaint since."

MINERS

(By United Press)
Hazelton, Pa., Aug. 26.—John L. Lewis today presented the miners' story of the anthracite mine wage dispute charging operators were to blame for the deadlock in the negotiations.

The president of the United Mine Workers declared that Major W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators' scale committee had raised an impenetrable barrier against further negotiations and that the miners found it was useless to attempt any settlement.

New Guide For Aviators
Invented at Army Field

(By United Press)
Dayton, O., Aug. 26.—One of the most difficult problems confronting aviators—that of steering correctly may be solved in a new invention developed by the engineering division of the United States Air Service at McCook field here.

The solution is believed to have been reached, partially at least, through the development of a radio beacon. The inventor is Captain W. H. Murphy, of the United States Signal corps. The beacon has been installed at Monmouth, Ill., and is ready for immediate service for the guidance of fliers between that city and Chicago.

The theory of the radio beacon is simple. A directional antenna is erected on the broadcasting station. Two signals are sent out in slightly varying directions. One signal follows a course slightly to the right of the airman's route. The other goes slightly to the left.

Half way between these courses the signals merge into one. When the flier hears the latter signal he knows he is on the right course.

S. D. TAX LEVY IS INCREASED

(By United Press)
Pierre, S. D., Aug. 26.—An increase of 12.8 in the mill tax levy for South Dakota over last year's figures has been announced by the state division of taxation. The general levy this year will be 2.73. In 1924 it was 2.42. The increase is made necessary by the shortage in the general fund, according to state officials.

SWINE SHOW AT FAIR

3 Futurities Will Feature Same at Minnesota State Fair
Sept. 5 to 12

Three futurities will feature the swine show to be staged at the coming Minnesota State Fair and Northwest Dairy Exposition, Twin Cities, September 5 to 12, it was announced by Superintendent E. F. Ferrin today.

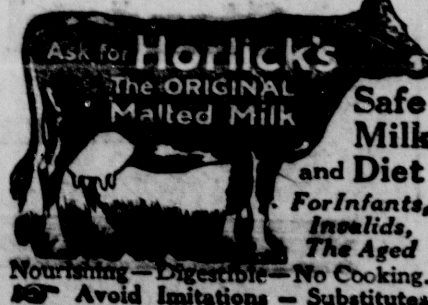

Special prizes offered jointly by the State Fair and breed associations will be presented to the owners of winning animals. The Chester White State Futurity has attracted 13 nominations. The prize list aggregates $400.00. Twelve nominations have been received for the Poland China Futurity, for which $200.00 is offered. In the National Duroc Jersey State Fair Futurity 12 nominations have been made, the prize money totaling $200.00.

There futurities will be special features on the swine show program. All of the regular competitions promise to attract record fields. With the fair management offering prize money totaling $6,200.00 and with the hog market on the upward trend, Mr. Ferrin predicts that this year's show will be the best in years. Breeds popular in the Northwest have been recognized in the premium list and include Poland Chinas, Chester Whites, Duroc Jerseys, Berkshires, Yorkshires and Hampshires.

Many of the leading swine breeders of the state already have sent in their entries. Among a few of the more prominent ones are Simon Kruse, of Minneapolis, owner of the Radisson Farms, Anoka, who will show Berkshires; H. A. Drenthall, of Wykoff, Chester Whites; V. S. Culver, of Austin, Duroc Jerseys; and W. J. Graham & Sons, Waverly, Poland Chinas.

A special attraction will be the Boys' and Girls' Pig Club contest. Youngsters from all parts of the state will exhibit their animals in this contest. Cash prizes and gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded the winners.

The list of judges for the swine department has just been completed. W. H. Paw, of Freedom Station, Ohio, will judge Poland Chinas; Prof. H. H. Kildee, of Ames, Iowa, Chester Whites and Duroc Jerseys; and E. Z. Russell, Washington, D. C., Berkshires, Yorkshires and Hampshires.

THE MILLIONAIRES ARE COMING

WHAT has given California and Florida the great impetus? It's the millionaires, the men with money to develop a region and who, by building their own palaces of homes, attract others to the section.

Wealth penned up in safety deposit vaults does not help the Brainerd Lake Region or any other section. But wealth, set in motion, gives an impetus to a whole wide section. Brainerd and the Lake Region welcome the man who has been successful in the stock market, in big business, in merchandising gum, in national transportation, in the world of letters, of art, of achievement. We say, right here in the Brainerd Lake Region, is the place to have real enjoyment, to fish, to hunt, to motor, to swim, to breathe the pine-laden air. The world of sportsmanship is a broad fraternity and we welcome the millionaire. You big boys are missing many of the good things of life by not emigrating to the Brainerd Lake Region.

Here is where the whole family can attain a coat of healthful tan, where you can play golf, where every man will treat you as a real neighbor and friend. No artificial life. Your wife and children will take as keen a delight in fishing and other outdoor sports as you do.

Stories current in the Brainerd Lake Region took on the most roseate hue when it became noised about that William Wrigley, Jr., the chewing gum king, was heading a group of Chicago "Gold Coast" and Cincinnati capitalists who were to secure a block of 800 acres on Gull lake, twelve miles from Brainerd, and build fifty palatial millionaires' homes, rivalling the best that Hollywood, Miami or Los Angeles possesses.

Gull lake is but one of the fine lakes in our great Brainerd Lake Region. There are 700 lakes within easy driving distance of Brainerd. Our region has received added recognition by the announcement that the $700,000 paving project, Little Falls to Brainerd, is to be set in motion this year.

WORKING WITH PEOPLE

ONE of the greatest assets in our lake country is the people we draw here. For instance, near Pequot a group of Minneapolis Symphony orchestra artists have quite a colony. They have entered heartily in the community spirit prevailing and have given freely of their talents, thus assisting to make our coming Crow Wing county fair the peer of any county fair in the world of music.

When we find such world-famous artists like our friends Richard Lindenhahn and Herman Rossenroth going to Crosby to hear the Range band play there, it proves a real inspiration to the whole musical world in this county. On September 1, Brainerd Day at the fair, a special quartet composed of Messrs. Rossenroth, Lindenhahn, Wagner and Damm will play. We gratefully acknowledge the honors paid our agricultural society by these artists of the Minneapolis Symphony and by Mr. Damm, director of the Minneapolis municipal band. In such acts as these they are doing valiant service in spreading the knowledge of real music. True, many a musician can devote himself entirely to fishing and other recreation while on his vacation, but these men have responded in wonderful manner and their efforts should be appreciated by overwhelming attendance at the county fair.

In addition to these headlines, the fair has also assembled the Brainerd Municipal band, the Brainerd Ladies band which is featured in the Elks convention pictures taken, Captain Billy Fawcett's Breezy Point Collegian Aces orchestra, and the Range band of Crosby.

AT THE ROTARY CLUB

ROTARY club dinners are getting to be regular reunions. One meeting a short time ago registered 20 visiting Rotarians. Last week was almost as good. That injunction, that a Rotarian should keep up his attendance, is followed faithfully in our lake region and visiting Rotarians from a dozen states are frequently at the Ransford hotel on a Tuesday noon, where the luncheons are held.

As stated by Dr. John Abernethy of Oklahoma, the thing that stays with a man, in addition to the loving remembrance of our lakes and streams and woods, is the hearty handclasp of friendship one receives in our lake country.

That people like this country is evidenced by the fact that a Chicago family summering in the north section of Crow Wing county, so impressed by the beauties of this region, regarded the little cemetery near the lake as a more suitable resting place for wife and mother, than smoky, noisy, hurly-burly Chicago. And now in later years, when they come to spend their annual vacation here, they will visit the shrine of the departed one, knowing she sleeps well near the lakes she loved so well.

WAR AGAINST MASHERS

BRAINERD is interested in the war against mashers which Park Commissioner H. C. Wenzel is waging. Mr. Wenzel wants the St. Paul park system made a safe place for women, girls and children and resents the mashing tactics or rowdism of a certain class of young men.

For years Mr. Wenzel and his large family have spent their summers near the federal dam on Gull lake and we consider the Wenzel family as "one of us." Mr. Wenzel has brought the park system of St. Paul to a high state of perfection, in fact, at the last election he scored such a tremendous vote as to give him a greater majority than any other candidate on the ticket.

Mr. Wenzel is a family man and as such the interest of the home appeals to him.

PLANS are under way for the development of the river barge line from Illinois to St. Paul. When such an industrial commissioner like Colonel J. H. Brittin goes after such business, then results can be expected. It will be noted that Col. Brittin is the kind of a genius who gives out news after he has accomplished something. Every move he makes spells more business for St. Paul and the city may well consider itself fortunate in having such a man at the helm of material civic affairs.

ANSWER IS FILED TO SALARY SUIT AGAINST BIG THREE

St. Paul, Aug. 26.—An answer was filed to the action pending in Ramsey county court against the state commission on administration and finance.

J. E. Markham, deputy attorney general, prepared the answer. The action was brought by members of the state railroad and warehouse commission against the finance commission and Ray P. Chase, state auditor, to compel the issuance of warrants for increased salaries allowed five employees of the railroad commission.

The salaries were increased in June before the law reorganizing the state government became effective. The increases were disallowed by the finance commission members after they took office on July 1.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Brainerd Folks

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headache, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Brainerd resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Peter Paulson, 402 Oak St., W., says: "I slipped and wrenched my back. For several days I was all in and could hardly take care of my work. My kidneys acted too frequently and I had no ambition to do anything. I read about Doan's Pills and was led to try them. They soon relieved me."

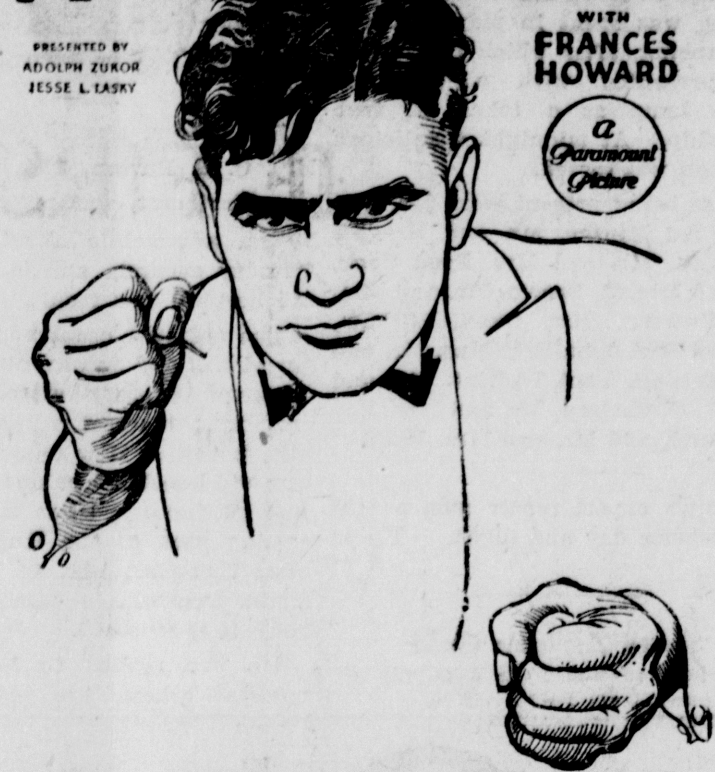

A FEW YEARS LATER Mr. Paulson added: "Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble. I have had no return of the complaint since."

MINERS' SIDE

IS PRESENTED

JOHN L. LEWIS SPOKESMAN FOR THE HARD COAL MINERS

(By United Press)
Hazleton, Pa., Aug. 26.—John L. Lewis today presented the miners' story of the anthracite mine wage dispute charging operators were to blame for the deadlock in the negotiations.

The president of the United Mine Workers declared that Major W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators' scale committee had raised an impenetrable barrier against further negotiations and that the miners found it was useless to attempt any settlement.

New Guide For Aviators

Invented at Army Field

(By United Press)
Dayton, O., Aug. 26.—One of the most difficult problems confronting aviators—that of steering correctly may be solved in a new invention developed by the engineering division of the United States Air Service at McCook field here.

The solution is believed to have been reached, partially at least, through the development of a radio beacon. The inventor is Captain W. H. Murphy, of the United States Signal corps. The beacon has been installed at Monmouth, Ill., and is ready for immediate service for the guidance of fliers between that city and Chicago.

The theory of the radio beacon is simple. A directional antenna is erected on the broadcasting station. Two signals are sent out in slightly varying directions. One signal follows a course slightly to the right of the airman's route. The other goes slightly to the left.

Half way between these courses the signals merge into one. When the flier hears the latter signal he knows he is on the right course.

S. D. TAX LEVY IS INCREASED

(By United Press)
Pierre, S. D., Aug. 26.—An increase of 12.8 in the mill tax levy for South Dakota over last year's figures has been announced by the state division of taxation. The general levy this year will be 2.73. In 1924 it was 2.42. The increase is made necessary by the shortage in the general fund, according to state officials.

SWINE SHOW AT FAIR

3 Futurities Will Feature Same at Minnesota State Fair
Sept. 5 to 12

Three futurities will feature the swine show to be staged at the coming Minnesota State Fair and Northwest Dairy Exposition, Twin Cities, September 5 to 12, it was announced by Superintendent E. F. Ferrin today.

Special prizes offered jointly by the State Fair and breed associations will be presented to the owners of winning animals. The Chester White State Futurity has attracted 13 nominations. The prize list aggregates $400.00. Twelve nominations have been received for the Poland China Futurity, for which $200.00 is offered. In the National Duroc Jersey State Fair Futurity 12 nominations have been made, the prize money totaling $200.00.

There futurities will be special features on the swine show program. All of the regular competitions promise to attract record fields. With the fair management offering prize money totaling $6,200.00 and with the hog market on the upward trend, Mr. Ferrin predicts that this year's show will be the best in years. Breeds popular in the Northwest have been recognized in the premium list and include Poland Chinas, Chester Whites, Duroc Jerseys, Berkshires, Yorkshires and Hampshires.

Many of the leading swine breeders of the state already have sent in their entries. Among a few of the more prominent ones are Simon Kruse, of Minneapolis, owner of the Radisson Farms, Anoka, who will show Berkshires; H. A. Drenth, of Wykoff, Chester Whites; V. S. Culver, of Austin, Duroc Jerseys; and E. Z. Russell, Washington, D. C., Berkshires, Yorkshires and Hampshires.

A special attraction will be the Boys' and Girls' Pig Club contest. Youngsters from all parts of the state will exhibit their animals in this contest. Cash prizes and gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded the winners.

The list of judges for the swine department has just been completed. W. H. Pew, of Freedom Station, Ohio, will judge Poland Chinas; Prof. H. H. Kildee, of Ames, Iowa, Chester Whites and Duroc Jerseys; and E. Z. Russell, Washington, D. C., Berkshires, Yorkshires and Hampshires.

FADS OR FACTS?

(Minneapolis Labor Review)

HERE are two statements that should interest trade unionists.

The first made by J. W. O'Leary, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and vice president of the Chicago Trust Company to 1,200 delegates at the Interstate Merchants' council convention in Chicago last week was this:

"Self analysis by business has enabled the country to maintain high living standards. Instead of cutting wages the first thing, modern business methods have taught industry to cut costs and improve methods first, and leave wages until the last ditch is reached."

Then comes Roger Babson, statistical expert and business analyzer, on Monday morning with the following:

"However, the important question for manufacturers and investors to consider is whether this wage cut of 10 per cent is to apply only to the textile, shoe, tire and a few other industries, or whether it is to be more or less general. Unfortunately business is largely determined by fads rather than by facts, and this often applies to changes in the wage scale. Such evidence as is at hand, however, leads me to believe that there will not be at this time a general decrease in wages throughout all industries. Business should be better this fall than it is at the present time and there should be less unemployment, especially if the farmers prosper. Therefore labor leaders claim that there should be no reason for a reduction in wages. On the other hand, many manufacturers believe that this 10 per cent reduction will be general, and like a wave sweeping over the entire country, will be applied to all industries. As it is a subject in which everyone, rich and poor, is interested, the situation should be carefully watched."

Wage cuts according to the head of the U. S. C. of C., are only made after long consideration and only as a last expedient.

Wage cuts according to the industrial scientist, Babson, are more a matter of fads than facts.

Many will doubt the correctness of the first statement. Few, if any, will question the latter.

Wages are a question of fact where the workers in the industry are organized. In unorganized industries they are left to the whims and fads of the one voice of the employer who without consulting employees sets the scale.

Unfortunately wages are not just so much money. They are homes, clothes, food, recreation, education and comfort. So when wage reductions become a fad it means that it is the fad to take from those who toil part of the necessities of life.

What thinking worker would permit the welfare of his family to be left to the fad of an unfair and unsympathetic employer?

What merchant would permit the success of his business to be decided solely by the owner of another business?

Those workers who do not affiliate with organized labor permit this very thing. For only through their union can wages be made a matter of facts rather than fads.

Those merchants who oppose organization do the self same thing. For their business prospers or is depressed as wages rise and fall, and purchasing power is accordingly increased or decreased.

Complete organization of the workers would make wages everywhere a matter of facts, not fads. It would stabilize business, and bring a prosperity to the workers that has never yet been attained.

LABOR UNIONS' CHIEF AIM IS TO FURTHER FREEDOM AND JUSTICE

By JOHN P. FREY

THOSE who believe that the trade union movement exists principally for the purpose of securing higher wages, shorter hours and improved conditions of labor, fall far short from understanding the true purpose of trade unionism.

The trade union movement of North America exists primarily and principally so that those who work for wages will have a controlling voice over their lives as wage earners.

The trade union movement if it did not aim to establish freedom, and liberty, and justice for the wage earners, would be a purely commercialized movement, aiming only to secure as many dollars and cents as were possible, regardless of the rights and the welfare of others.

Human liberty, the right of men to control their own lives, is the inspiration which has created and which will perpetuate our trade union movement. The wage earner knows from the most bitter experiences, that political liberty and religious liberty of themselves do not make men truly free. These two priceless conditions must be accompanied by industrial liberty before men are truly free, before they are in a position to have that full control over their lives which every man must enjoy if he is to have the same opportunity as all other men to work out the problems of his life, and establish human liberty upon a basis where every one will enjoy the same rights, the same opportunities and the same privileges.

The wage earner has the same right to exercise control over his life that the employer has to control his business. When employers take the position that control over their business is of greater importance than the right of their employees to have control over how they shall live and work, then there is established a condition of inequality and injustice which is equal to that which is found in those countries where the people are prevented from enjoying self-government through the power exercised by hereditary rulers.

LABOR

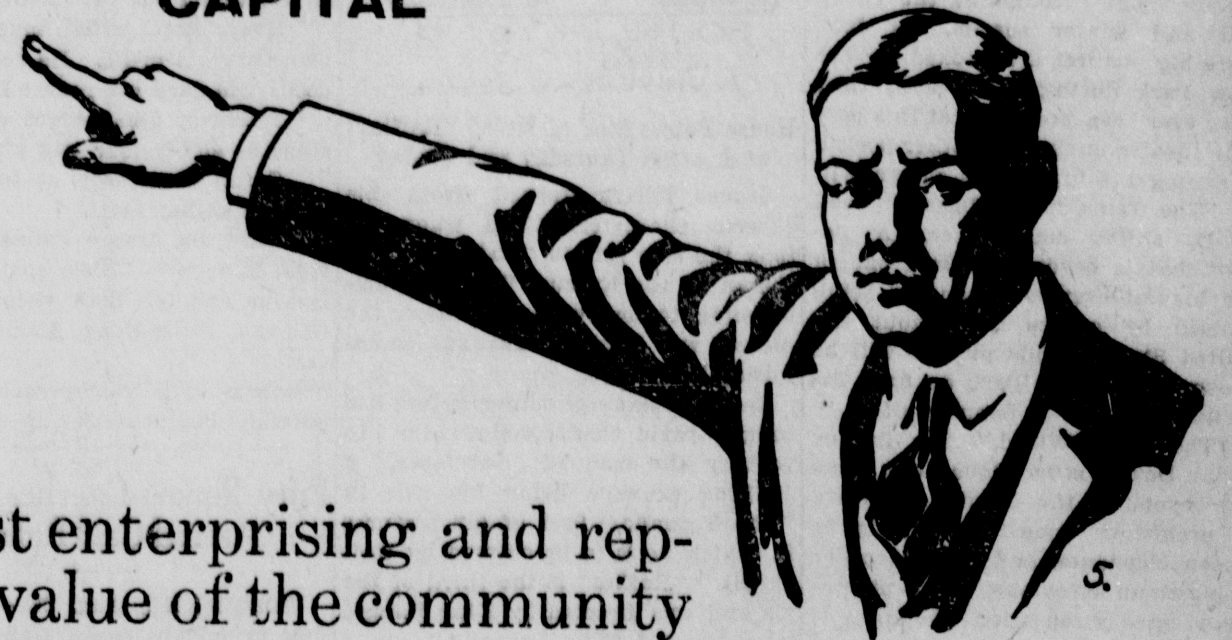

CO-OPERATION

IS THE FIRST PRINCIPLE OF SUCCESS

CAPITAL

Greater industrial growth for Brainerd and Minnesota is ahead. The logical and only way to build up a community such as this, is to show your own faith in a definite, concrete and practical way. The dollar expended with HOME INDUSTRY eventually returns to the good citizen, who spent it. The dollar sent out of the community for commodities that could be purchased in Brainerd may never return; in fact it seldom does.

FADS OR FACTS?

(Minneapolis Labor Review)

HERE are two statements that should interest trade unionists.

The first made by J. W. O'Leary, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and vice president of the Chicago Trust Company to 1,200 delegates at the Interstate Merchants' council convention in Chicago last week was this:

"Self analysis by business has enabled the country to maintain high living standards. Instead of cutting wages the first thing, modern business methods have taught industry to cut costs and improve methods first, and leave wages until the last ditch is reached."

Then comes Roger Babson, statistical expert and business analyzer, on Monday morning with the following:

"However, the important question for manufacturers and investors to consider is whether this wage cut of 10 per cent is to apply only to the textile, shoe, tire and a few other industries, or whether it is to be more or less general. Unfortunately business is largely determined by fads rather than by facts, and this often applies to changes in the wage scale. Such evidence as is at hand, however, leads me to believe that there will not be at this time a general decrease in wages throughout all industries. Business should be better this fall than it is at the present time and there should be less unemployment, especially if the farmers prosper. Therefore labor leaders claim that there should be no reason for a reduction in wages. On the other hand, many manufacturers believe that this 10 per cent reduction will be general, and like a wave sweeping over the entire country, will be applied to all industries. As it is a subject in which everyone, rich and poor, is interested, the situation should be carefully watched."

Wage cuts according to the head of the U. S. C. of C., are only made after long consideration and only as a last expedient.

Wage cuts according to the industrial scientist, Babson, are more a matter of fads than facts.

Many will doubt the correctness of the first statement. Few, if any, will question the latter.

Wages are a question of fact where the workers in the industry are organized. In unorganized industries they are left to the whims and fads of the one voice of the employer who without consulting employees sets the scale.

Unfortunately wages are not just so much money. They are homes, clothes, food, recreation, education and comfort. So when wage reductions become a fad it means that it is the fad to take from those who toil part of the necessities of life.

What thinking worker would permit the welfare of his family to be left to the fad of an unfair and unsympathetic employer?

What merchant would permit the success of his business to be decided solely by the owner of another business?

Those workers who do not affiliate with organized labor permit this very thing. For only through their union can wages be made a matter of facts rather than fads.

Those merchants who oppose organization do the self same thing. For their business prospers or is depressed as wages rise and fall, and purchasing power is accordingly increased or decreased.

Complete organization of the workers would make wages everywhere a matter of facts, not fads. It would stabilize business, and bring a prosperity to the workers that has never yet been attained.

LABOR UNIONS' CHIEF AIM IS TO FURTHER FREEDOM AND JUSTICE

By JOHN P. FREY

THOSE who believe that the trade union movement exists principally for the purpose of securing higher wages, shorter hours and improved conditions of labor, fall far short from understanding the true purpose of trade unionism.

The trade union movement of North America exists primarily and principally so that those who work for wages will have a controlling voice over their lives as wage earners.

The trade union movement if it did not aim to establish freedom, and liberty, and justice for the wage earners, would be a purely commercialized movement, aiming only to secure as many dollars and cents as were possible, regardless of the rights and the welfare of others.

Human liberty, the right of men to control their own lives, is the inspiration which has created and which will perpetuate our trade union movement. The wage earner knows from the most bitter experiences, that political liberty and religious liberty of themselves do not make men truly free. These two priceless conditions must be accompanied by industrial liberty before men are truly free, before they are in a position to have that full control over their lives which every man must enjoy if he is to have the same opportunity as all other men to work out the problems of his life, and establish human liberty upon a basis where every one will enjoy the same rights, the same opportunities and the same privileges.

The wage earner has the same right to exercise control over his life that the employer has to control his business. When employers take the position that control over their business is of greater importance than the right of their employees to have control over how they shall live and work, then there is established a condition of inequality and injustice which is equal to that which is found in those countries where the people are prevented from enjoying self-government through the power exercised by hereditary rulers.

GREATER MOVIE SEASON IN CITY

Big Pictures Booked For New Park
in Near Future

"THE TEN COMMANDMENTS"

"Lightnin," "Iron Horse," "Charlie's Aunt," "The Lost World"

"Greater Movie Season" will open in Brainerd Sept. 1st, and the New Park theatre has booked what they believe the biggest attractions not only for the week of "Greater Movie Season," but throughout the entire fall and winter season. In fact, more big pictures are booked for the New Park during this season than have ever been presented at this popular theatre during any other period.

Among the first to be shown will be "The Ten Commandments" Cecil B. De Mille's masterpiece. A picture that is beyond a doubt one of the biggest ever made and is being praised by critics throughout the United States. This picture will be shown at the New Park on Aug. 30-31 and Sept. 1-2 at popular prices. "The Lost World," Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's stupendous story, passing beyond to the strange unknown of prehistoric monsters, as big as fifteen elephants, and flying reptiles as big as an aeroplane. This picture has created a sensation wherever it has been shown.

"Lightnin" taken from the play that broke the world's record. Three years in New York. The road-show played to more people throughout the world than any drama in history. This picture recently broke attendance records in Minneapolis. The Augler Brothers repertoire company will present the play during their engagement in November.

"The Iron Horse." In "The Iron Horse" Mr. Fox has pictured in every effective way one of the very greatest events in American history. The story of the building of the first transcontinental railway is only to be matched in peace time exploits by the voyage of Columbus, the landing of the Pilgrims and the building of the Panama Canal. "The Iron Horse" breathes the spirit of one overwhelming gigantic achievement.

"Charlie's Aunt" with Sid Chaplin. Undoubtedly every one has heard of this picture made for laughing purposes only, which recently played an extended engagement at one of the leading theatres in Minneapolis.

"The Son of His Father," Harold Bell Wright's best selling Western classic. "Desert Flower" Colleen Moore's latest hit, Richard Barthelmess in "Soul Fire," Bebe Daniels in "Manicure Girl," Adolphe Menjou in "Lost a Wife," Milton Sills and Doris Kenyon in "I want My Man," George O'Brien and Billy Dove in "The Fighting Heart," Tom Mix in "The Lucky Horseshoe," Aileen Pringle and Dorothy MacKall in "One Year to Live."

All of these big attractions will be shown within the next six weeks. In addition the ever popular "Bringing Up Father" road show with an entirely new play has been booked, also the Augler Brothers repertoire company will play a week's engagement during the first part of November.

House Peters Star of Noted "Raffles" at Lyceum Thursday and Friday

House Peters stepped from his chosen characterizations when he took the star role in "Raffles," to be shown in the Lyceum Theatre, commencing tomorrow, and after the picture was finished, said that he enjoyed the change.

In his long stage career Peters has sought parts that enabled him to portray the man of out-doors, a striking example being his role in "The Tornado," first of six pictures in which he is to be starred by Universal. "Raffles" is the third of the six and was directed by King Baggot who directed "The Tornado."

"The Shock Punch," New Dix Picture Action! Punch! Red blood! Comedy!

That's the order of the day down at the New Park tonight and Thursday where the Paramount picture, "The Shock Punch," starring Richard Dix, is the feature.

"The Shock Punch" is a screen version of John Monk Saunders' Liberty Magazine story, adapted for the screen by Luther Reed and directed by Paul Sloane, who made "Too Many Kisses," also starring Dix. Frances Howard, who played opposite Dix in "Too Many Kisses," is featured at the head of the cast in this one, too.

In "The Shock Punch," Dix has the role of Randall Lee Savage, scion of a wealthy family, who, in a course of boxing to keep physically fit, develops a "shock punch." He is forced to use this knockout punch on several occasions, especially when in an attempt to prove his daring, he takes a position among structural iron workers.

"The Legend of Hollywood" at Lyceum Unusual Film

There is a picture on view at the Lyceum Theatre tonight that nobody should miss. It is many months since the screen has given us such a fine, inspiring photodrama, and we are not far wrong in stating that Renaud Hoffman, its director, has created what should be really known as a motion picture classic. With the swift, sure strokes of a master painter, Hoffman has etched a moving composition that thrills and grips from beginning to end.

"The Legend of Hollywood" is from the Photoplay Magazine story by Frank Condon that tells of the despairing struggles of a writer to gain recognition in the field of scenario writing. Disappointment follows disappointment until, on the brink of desperation, he gambles with death in a thrilling game of seven glasses, one of which contains poison.

"SOME WILD NOTIONS I HAVE KNOWN"

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

"PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH"

This is either an impossibility or a futility.

If a man is not living up to all his ideals he has low and unworthy ambitions.

It is only by keeping our ideals ahead of our accomplishments that we make any real progress.

Hypocrisy does not consist in preaching no more than we practice, but in pretending to practice what we say we are preaching.

Every great minded father holds up ideals for his son which he has, himself, never been able to reach. The true teacher will point out heights and glories to his pupil which he knows that he will never be able to attain himself. Every honest preacher talks about perfections toward which he is striving—not the perfections he has accomplished.

Paul, the apostle, said "Forgetting the things that are behind, I press on," by which he meant, "Set your goals constantly ahead of your abilities if you would see your abilities grow."

Every great artist, musician, orator, mechanic, inventor, student is his own severest critic. He sees the gulf that lies between the dream and the deed. He dare not reduce the dream. He must bring up the deed.

Titian at ninety-eight was still dreaming of his greatest picture. Gladstone at eighty-four was planning still more far-reaching reforms.

Sarah Bernhardt, at seventy, was still stretching every nerve to come in sight of her ideal.

John, on dreary Patmos, said "I saw the new Jerusalem coming down from Heaven." Unless some men see the New Jerusalem coming down from Heaven and tell their vision to other men there will be no New Jerusalem, Chicago, Hong-Kong, Manchester, Birmingham or Pittsburgh rising up on earth.

Go on with your preaching. Let it be as far ahead of your practicing as possible, but never let up on the practicing.

About 75 friends and members of the Swedish Bethany church gathered at the church for a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. John W. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dahl and their families, on Monday evening. Both families leave this week for their new homes in Minneapolis and the party was in the nature of a surprise to express regrets at seeing them leave the city and to wish them God speed in their new homes.

Rev. P. G. Fallquist expressed the sentiment of the gathering and presented each family with a purse. Other numbers were music by the audience, piano solo by Miss Jennie O. Wilson, talks by Chas Swanson, and Oscar Swanson, superintendent of the Sunday school, who expressed the regrets of the school in losing nine faithful scholars. He urged them to continue attending Sunday school as faithfully in their new home as they have here.

The ladies served luncheon and all enjoyed a pleasant social hour.

PRES. TUOHY'S ADDRESS GIVEN

Full Text of Speech Delivered at Banquet at Breezy Point Lodge

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING Statistics Quoted to Show Necessity of Providing For Old Age

Only one man out of 100 who start together at the age of 25 years is wealthy 30 years later. Dr. E. L. Tuohy, president of the Northern Minnesota Medical Association told his hearers in a very interesting address at the banquet of that organization, held at Breezy Point on Monday evening.

Out of these 100 men, one is wealthy, three are well to do, six are earning a living, 36 are dead, and the remaining, "the faithful fifty-four," are dependent upon public or private support.

Contrasting this with the same men 20 years earlier, or at the age of 35 years, Dr. Tuohy showed that 95 are living, 10 are wealthy, 10 well to do, and the other 75 are self supporting.

Citing further statistics, the president stated that of those who contracted heart disease after 40 years of age, 90.1 per cent died; 96.8 per cent died from cerebral hemorrhage or apoplexy, when contracted after 40 years of age; 92 per cent of those suffering from cancer contracted after the 40-year age, die from that disease, and 88 per cent of those contracting kidney disease after 40 years of age, die from that malady.

The Family—The American Unit of Society

When we were aroused to a pitch where "inevitable war" might be prosecuted unthinkingly, the popularizing propaganda properly put out was the assurance that it was the only means of preserving American family life and tradition.

This family life is the basis of our religious and educational, and most of our civic endeavors—the outgrowth of our religious beliefs, our precedents and conventions. Hence, whether a man is a farmer or a banker, an artisan or a physician, his first duty is to his family. Any suggestion that places society or country first does not bespeak the bald truth.

As yet, we have no peasant class. Accordingly, our native born American women rarely till the fields. It is only now becoming noticeable in the other extreme of urban life, that many women, even after marriage, work independently. This is notably true among nurses and stenographers and would be more common among teachers were the practice more popular with normal schools themselves, where the flood of material for teachers renders the available places in correspondingly higher demand. Among artists and allied folks this independence, both mental and physical, furnishes the tenuous restraint that so frequently breaks down the marriage bond, and swells our amazing divorce rate.

Nevertheless, few physicians' wives engage in independent labor, even though not a few women physicians themselves marry. Therefore, at this stage of our economic existence, it is incumbent upon us to so direct our earning power at the period of its greatest capacity, so that our dependents may in their own way fittingly "carry on" according to our present living standards.

Obviously, these desiderata may not fittingly come by the assumption of either unfair individual or group privileges. The great laws under which we all live and to which we are all subject, render any illogical advantage acquired by any bloc as of the shorest possible tenure. Any advantage thus gained is always followed by a most unfavorable reaction. Blocs are among the most dangerous and unfair expressions of the herding instinct, and nothing could be of greater evil portent to the world than if they "work successfully." The recent example of the MacDonald Labor body, in England is a fine and fitting example of this sort of blind establishment of one group of people in dominance over all the rest.

Thus it is that our own medical leaders are by no means united upon the advantages that are supposed to accrue from intimate cohesive political endeavor, and most of our thinking members are much against the establishment of either state or national lobbies.

If it is accepted as unfair to take "bloc advantage," then it is obvious that our ethical practices are well founded and individuals who abandon them are rightfully classed among us as outlaws. No time need be spent upon arguments to elaborate this well established fact. Nevertheless, it must be likewise clear that rigid adherence to fixed standards is Confucian in practice, and for a profession as amazingly progressive as Medicine it is obvious that our points of view, as well as attack upon our mutual problems, must shift from time to time. Commensurate with the greatly improved status of the medical profession in general, it is more than likely that the lot of the average individual doctor has likewise improved. Nevertheless, it is still apparent that a large number of our members are still hopelessly improvident. Many of them are not getting on, and furnish a background of restlessness and disappointment, out of which come various schemes, laws, such as of contract or state practice, aimed at eliminating individual uncertainties and basic and elemental inequalities.

It now requires a long time—seven or eight years after high school training—to enter an individual into the practice of Medicine. This is far too expensive an enterprise, both for the person involved and for the educational institution providing the training, to leave most of the further control and concern of that person to blind fate. We should at least ponder well upon the figures. A fusion of interests has spent between $10,000 and $20,000 on the "young doctor" when he is launched forth in his profession after his internship has been fulfilled.

Surely, if we have a great host of unsuccessful doctors, many of them must be so because they are poorly adapted to the great profession they have ill advisedly chosen.

Where should they locate? Where should any doctor locate who is not getting on where he is? Great forces are at work, moving sometimes cataclysmic, like earthquakes, but usually slowly and hidden—glacial in their movements, and yet, nevertheless, just as inevitable as were the masses of ice that once covered this region. The trends of people—the influence of roads—the American penchant for machines, whether mechanical or industrial—the lessening of the farmers, and yet an increase in their products—the great concentration in cities—these problems are not academic; they are the very "magic carpet" that carries some to exalted positions, or the millstones that drag others down to the commonplace and the indifferent.

Neither were we, as students, or those who are coming on now, ever given any definite advice or instruction on such elemental matters as bookkeeping or plain business dealings, but rather was the glittering or apparent success of a few practitioners paraded before our eyes, and only too often we stood by and saw only a few of the glittering non-essentials. Too much has always been said about "munificent service," as if we were in the ministry and all destined for a busy life of cannibal conversion—the general premium placed upon foolhardiness and the idea that "the Lord tempers the wind to the shorn lamb."

What are the facts? In all truth, the old adage expresses it perfectly: "He who goes out wool gathering oft returns himself well shorn."

So, we see, the useless and absurd effort at opulence through the short cuts of speculation, through investments in oil, copper, gold, cranberry marshlands—a thousand useless adventures—all teaching up with Euclidian certainty to the loss of valuable years, to loss of spirit and courage—in a word, putting us, as a profession, into a "preferred list" of "suckers." The Propensity or Capacity to Save For most, the absurd tendency to speculate comes through the feeling that their capacity and power to save are so small that their only chance to so-called "freedom" lies in taking a wild or speculative chance. It is often said, but cannot be too often repeated, that saving is not so much based upon an elevation of income as it is a limitation of expense. We could all well afford to recall and quote Epicurus.

The first reason for saving, as indicated in my opening paragraph, is to provide for one's natural dependents. No better way has yet been devised to perform this than through the wide variety of life and health insurance, as well as the various forms of annuities, enabling any professional man to set aside safely and securely a certain proportion of his earning capacity against the time when he may not have it. That feature presently is easy enough, but it is only part of the problem. No company has yet ventured upon the matter of insuring us against our own premature professional senescence. This can only be accomplished through routine yearly or semi-yearly inventories of our inmost selves. Here is where a certain amount of your time, a definite portion of your earning capacity, must be invested in your medical society, in your medical trips, in your vacations—the cultivation of a hobby. In a word, anything and everything that retains your scientific and professional keenness, and fits you for the adventures of the day, and leaves you still in possession of that which is worth more to you than everything else in the world, viz., the security that you are alert, that you are up with your profession and with your job, and that you are a real citizen in your community.

As to the actual tangible saving aside from your life insurance, the usual advice given is to call to your aid and counsel the officials of well guided banks or trust companies. When you buy stock you must always ask the question, are you willing to be a part owner in the business? If you buy first mortgages on land or anything else, are you likewise willing to become the owner? As to notes and personal loans—the less said about them the better!

We Must Be Keener Students of Economic And of Natural Laws

Every young man coming into our profession, just as he enters into any community, stands a first class chance of being various grades of a slacker simply by his negativity. By taking the attitude of "let George do it," he assumes the willingness to bask in the sunshine of somebody else's endeavor, to enjoy community advantages, and accept it all as if it were a frame set off and ordained by Divine Providence to decorate his life's picture. Keep in the spirit of your profession and your medical societies, and certainly show every interest in the community in which you live. The cynicist finds nothing worthwhile—the true optimist finds everything, including "wool gathering," worthwhile—the truth lies somewhere between. Get back of our fraternal organizations, our luncheon clubs, our Chamber of Commerce, our development associations—all that in every way seeks to enhance and enlarge the lives of everyone.

In a bigger and a broader way, however, we, as doctors, must be ready to return to our respective communities a little of the scientific heaven given to us in our years of preparation and in our further continued years of studenthip. Reason still rarely rules; truth, right and science still come far from guiding the world. Emotionalism has a far greater hold upon the masses of people than does logic, foresight or judgment. The success of Bryan's life is almost enough to make searchers for the truth and for scientific accuracy to desert our planet. It is obviously insufficient that a man should be able to offer as his sole excuse for such a course "his essential honesty and integrity."

In the general arrangement of forces, we stand with many other folks on relatively unstable ground. Neither are we among the producers of raw material, nor is our number sufficient to class us among "the great consumers." Like many other groups, we must fight for our rights as well as for justice. The great conflict of mankind, based largely on the emotions rather than keen analytic differentiation, puts us in a position where we may find it far from easy to justify our existence, not even to mention, establish our indispensability. We are, in a measure, in the same boat with the grain merchant, the meat packer, various manufacturers of various commodities called luxuries, and we hold our position and tenure upon what we can ultimately show to reasoning man that we accomplish in our lives. We should not preach that we go forth to give a life of service, but this service should be a fairly apparent by-product of our work and our very existence.

We must learn the difference between edict, proclamation, statute, and really what comprises law. This difference must be sensed before we are even aware of the duty that devolves upon us as teachers. Our greatest need stands forth as the greatest tolerance, based upon a humble ambition to live a moderate and useful life, in return for a moderate but fair return, to reason it out and realize that natural and supernatural laws are complementary.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING

Statistics Quoted to Show Necessity of Providing For Old Age

Only one man out of 100 who start together at the age of 25 years is wealthy 30 years later. Dr. E. L. Tuohy, president of the Northern Minnesota Medical Association told his hearers in a very interesting address at the banquet of that organization, held at Breezy Point on Monday evening.

Out of these 100 men, one is wealthy, three are well to do, six are earning a living, 36 are dead, and the remaining, "the fateful fifty-four," are dependent upon public or private support.

Contrasting this with the same men 20 years earlier, or at the age of 35 years, Dr. Tuohy showed that 95 are living, 10 are wealthy, 10 well to do, and the other 75 are self supporting.

Citing further statistics, the president stated that of those who contracted heart disease after 40 years of age, 90.1 per cent died; 96.8 per cent died from cerebral hemorrhage or apoplexy, when contracted after 40 years of age; 92 per cent of those suffering from cancer contracted after the 40-year age, die from that disease, and 88 per cent of those contracting kidney disease after 40 years of age, die from that malady.

All of these statistics were quoted for a special purpose, i. e., to bring the professional man, and especially the physician, to a realization of the importance of providing for old age while he is still in his prime. The arguments set forth by Dr. Tuohy in this address are as pertinent to men in all walks of life, as they are to the doctor, and for this reason, the Dispatch asked permission from the president to publish his talk in full, which follows herewith:

The Family—The American Unit of Society

When we were aroused to a pitch where "inevitable war" might be prosecuted untidily, the popularizing propaganda properly put out was the assurance that it was the only means of preserving American family life and tradition.

Every young man coming into our profession, just as he enters into any community, stands a first class chance of being various grades of a slacker simply by his negativity. By taking the attitude of "let George do it," he assumes the willingness to bask in the sunshine of somebody else's endeavor, to enjoy community advantages, and accept it all as if it were a frame set off and ordained by Divine Providence to decorate his life's picture. Keep in the spirit of your profession and your medical societies, and certainly show every interest in the community in which you live. The cynicist finds nothing worthwhile—the true optimist finds everything, including "wool gathering," worthwhile—the truth lies somewhere between. Get back of our fraternal organizations, our luncheon clubs, our Chamber of Commerce, our development associations—all that in every way seeks to enhance and enlarge the lives of everyone.

In a bigger and a broader way, however, we, as doctors, must be ready to return to our respective communities a little of the scientific heaven given to us in our years of preparation and in our further continued years of studentship. Reason still rarely rules; truth, right and science still come far from guiding the world. Emotionalism has a far greater hold upon the masses of people than does logic, foresight or judgment. The success of Bryan's life is almost enough to make searchers for the truth and for scientific accuracy to desert our planet. It is obviously insufficient that a man should be able to offer as his sole excuse for such a course "his essential honesty and integrity."

In the general arrangement of forces, we stand with many other folks on relatively unstable ground. Neither are we among the producers of raw material, nor is our number sufficient to class us among "the great consumers." Like many other groups, we must fight for our rights as well as existence. The great conflict of mankind, based largely on the emotions rather than keen analytic differentiation, puts us in a position where we may find it far from easy to justify our existence, not even to mention, establish our indispensability. We are, in a measure, in the same boat with the grain merchant, the meat packer, various manufacturers of various commodities called luxuries, and we hold our position and tenure upon what we can ultimately show to reasoning man that we accomplish in our lives. We should not preach that we go forth to give a life of service, but this service should be a fairly apparent by-product of our work and our very existence.

We must learn the difference between edict, proclamation, statute, and really what comprises law. This difference must be sensed before we are even aware of the duty that devolves upon us as teachers. Our greatest need stands forth as the greatest tolerance, based upon a humble ambition to live a moderate and useful life, in return for a moderate but fair return, to reason it out and realize that natural and supernatural laws are complementary.

Oakland has added more than 100 improvements to cars that were already unmatched in performance, appearance and value—then subtracted $70 to $350 from Oakland prices, bringing these brilliant and beautiful new Oaklands down to the price-level of Fords!

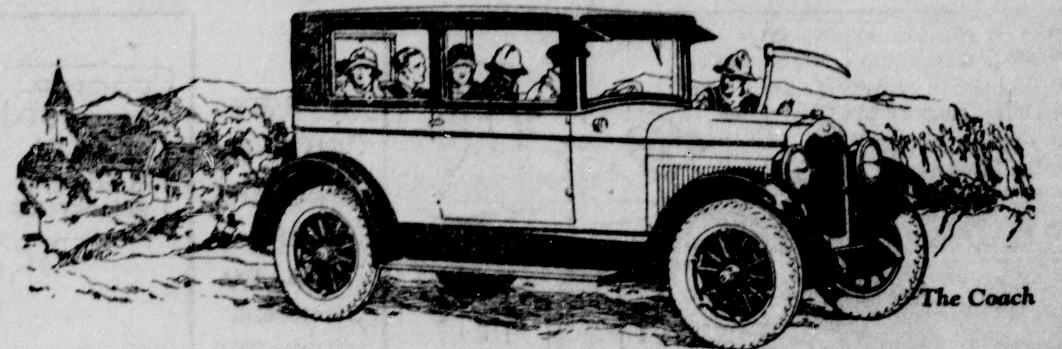

Think of it, a Six—with Four-Wheel Brakes, Air Cleaner, and Oil Filter as standard equipment; a Six—with low-slung beaded Fisher Body in enduring Duco; A Six—with the Harmonic Balancer, an exclusive feature rendering Oakland positively unmatched in freedom from vibration; a Six—far in advance in power, acceleration, speed, endurance and economy. And this Six selling for hundreds of dollars less than cars anywhere near it in quality.

Note the impressively lower prices—compare Oakland with the field—see how it outclasses all Sixes under $1500 and all Fours regardless of price.

ROCKNE TELLS HOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Editor)

New York, Aug. 26.—Knute Rockne, Notre Dame's great football coach and one of the keenest students of the game gives a fine idea of what a football player is and what the game means in his new book, "Coaching" (Devine-Adair Co.).

"To be a good football player," he says in the introduction, "a man must have brains, 'guts,' speed, self-restraint, motor co-ordination, fire of nervous energy, and to a lesser degree, physique and an unselfish point of view of sacrifice for the team. A successful coach must have personality, enthusiasm, technical knowledge, sense of fair play, sympathy for the players, and yet he must be a strict disciplinarian. A coach must thoroughly adapt himself to surrounding conditions. Competition, environment and types of men vary in different localities and in different schools 100 per cent.

"A football coach should absolutely insist upon sportsmanship and fair play not only from his opponents but from his own players and from himself. Sportsmanship means fair play. It means having a little respect for the other fellow's point of view. It means a real application of the Golden Rule. In contests like track athletics, tennis, golf, swimming, etc., where the competition doesn't involve so much mental stress and strain, sportsmanship has reached a very fine level. It is more difficult for a football coach to get the proper point of view. This is due to the fact that the very fierceness of the contest produces emotional clouds, making it difficult for judgment and fair play to pierce this dense fog of emotionalism. However, fair play must dominate in all our sports. I don't believe a great deal in preaching. I believe that one leading coach practicing sportsmanship does more good than fifty coaches merely preaching it.

"I believe that when a team has won, the winning coach should be as generous as possible in his comments on the losing team and the losing coach. Braggings and gloating have no place in circles of erudition. I believe that when a team loses, the losing coach should give full credit to the other team regardless of conditions. I believe that an alibi is entirely out of order. That coach should, however, inform his own team that the next time they play that same team they must bend every effort to reverse the decision. I don't like the fellow who loses too easily, but you can lose like a gentleman and at the same time say to yourself that the next time you meet, you intend to give them a good wallop. The fellow who is a poor loser with alibis, and who gives the other team no credit is like a little spoiled egotistical boy who has not grown up.

"I believe that when officials have been agreed upon for a contest that they should not be intimidated or abused. Their selection should be based upon mutual approval. I don't believe that a big school or a big association has any right to take any unfair advantage of the smaller institutions by insisting upon the right to name officials. Athletic contests are based upon mutual respect and confidence.

"The feeling between the student bodies should be one of exhilaration and the coaches must do all in their power to eliminate that most base of emotions, hatred. Hatred has never built anything but has always been destructive. Fair play and sportsmanship if practiced will go a long way toward developing a finer type of citizenship throughout the country. As football should develop in the young man initiative, resourcefulness and the ability to think for himself, I think that the practice of the coach signalling from the sidelines is abominable. It cheats the boys and ruins confidence in their self-reliance. Football is largely a contest of wits and teams who have played the game properly get a lot of benefit mentally as well as physically."

THE BRAINERD COUNTRY CLUB AT DEERWOOD

WILL PLAY CUYUNA RANGE GOLF CLUB ON DEERWOOD LINKS
FOURSOMES TO BE STARTED AT 1:30 P. M. ON SUN. DAY

The Brainerd Country club will play the Cuyuna Range Golf club on the Deerwood Links on Sunday afternoon, August 30th, at two o'clock. Brainerd players are to be at the range links at 1:30 o'clock on that afternoon, so that foursomes can be arranged without any delays.

The Cuyuna Range club is made up of players from Crosby, Ironston, Deerwood and Aitkin, and a good game is expected. Brainerd golfers are asked to sign up for Sunday's play at the home club house just as soon as possible, in order that the exact number planning to go may be ascertained.

There are very few ladies in the range club who are active players, so there will be no match between the ladies of the two clubs on Sunday. However, the Brainerd club ladies are invited to make the trip and to try out the range course, which is said to be one of the sportiest links in this section.

The Cuyuna Range Golf club's links are just east of the village of Deerwood, along the roadway on Trunk Highway No. 2. Those unfamiliar with their location can easily find them by traveling east from Deerwood about one mile on highway No. 2.

The Brainerd club has had no match with the range players this year, and members are looking forward to Sunday's play with a great deal of anticipation. It is reported that there are some very ardent golfers and very good players in the neighboring club, so that a close play is expected.

B. A. C.	2	6	1	.250

The Y. M. C. A. sluggers hit Stevens hard in the fourth and fifth innings last night, drove him from the box and took first place in the standings of teams for the second half. Only one game remains, that between the Workmen and B. A. C., to be played Thursday night. A win for the B. A. C. will leave the Y. M. C. A. undisputed champions for the second half. If the Workmen win, another game will be needed, as a tie will result.

The score was 9-1 in last night's game, and marked the worst defeat the Workmen have suffered this year. Up to the fourth frame it was anybody's ball game, but in that inning the war clubs got in their work. Orth, first up, was safe on B. Erickson's miff of his roller. Dillan bunted, sacrificing him to second, Swanson was safe when Tucker muffed Stevens' throw to catch Orth. Then Ringer, Molstad, Engbretson and Thorkildson each got a single, and Orth, Swanson, Ringer and Molstad dented the platter.

The fifth inning was a repetition of the fourth. Orth drew a walk, Dillan doubled to left center, Swanson drove both in with another double, Ringer was safe when Howard dropped his fly, Swanson scored on Molstad's sacrifice fly to right field, and Ringer counted on Thorkildson's third hit of the game. LeNeau's hit then meant the showers for Stevens, and G. Erickson went to the mound, retiring the side on one pitched ball, when Peterson's long fly to left found Howard under it when it fell.

Thorkildson was the slugging star, with a double and a pair of singles, but he shared honors with Ringer and LeNeau, each of whom got two hits, one of Ringer's being a double. For the Workmen, Norman was the only one who could do anything with Engbretson's offerings, he getting two hits in two trips.

Engbretson's pitching was of high order, allowing but four hits, all one base affairs, and striking out seven. He did not issue a pass. The lone score of the Workmen came in the fourth, G. Erickson getting to first on a fielder's choice, and taking third on Norman's single, and counting on a passed ball by Dillan.

Orth made a nice stop on the last play of the game, taking Tucker's bouncer far to his left and nipping him at first. Engbretson made a grandstand catch in the fifth, of Howard's high fly. He misjudged the ball and had to jump backward for the catch, taking it with one hand and turning a back hand stand with the ball in his glove.

I don't believe that a big school or a big association has any right to take any unfair advantage of the smaller institutions by insisting upon the right to name officials. Athletic contests are based upon mutual respect and confidence.

"The feeling between the student bodies should be one of exhilaration and the coaches must do all in their power to eliminate that most base of emotions, hatred. Hatred has never built anything but has always been destructive. Fair play and sportsmanship if practiced will go a long way toward developing a finer type of citizenship throughout the country. As football should develop in the young man initiative, resourcefulness and the ability to think for himself, I think that the practice of the coach signalling from the sidelines is abominable. It cheats the boys and ruins confidence in their self-reliance. Football is largely a contest of wits and teams who have played the game properly get a lot of benefit mentally as well as physically."

The Y. M. C. A. sluggers hit Stevens hard in the fourth and fifth innings last night, drove him from the box and took first place in the standings of teams for the second half. Only one game remains, that between the Workmen and B. A. C., to be played Thursday night. A win for the B. A. C. will leave the Y. M. C. A. undisputed champions for the second half. If the Workmen win, another game will be needed, as a tie will result.

The score was 9-1 in last night's game, and marked the worst defeat the Workmen have suffered this year. Up to the fourth frame it was anybody's ball game, but in that inning the war clubs got in their work. Orth, first up, was safe on B. Erickson's miff of his roller. Dillan bunted, sacrificing him to second, Swanson was safe when Tucker muffed Stevens' throw to catch Orth. Then Ringer, Molstad, Engbretson and Thorkildson each got a single, and Orth, Swanson, Ringer and Molstad dented the platter.

The fifth inning was a repetition of the fourth. Orth drew a walk, Dillan doubled to left center, Swanson drove both in with another double, Ringer was safe when Howard dropped his fly, Swanson scored on Molstad's sacrifice fly to right field, and Ringer counted on Thorkildson's third hit of the game. LeNeau's hit then meant the showers for Stevens, and G. Erickson went to the mound, retiring the side on one pitched ball, when Peterson's long fly to left found Howard under it when it fell.

Thorkildson was the slugging star, with a double and a pair of singles, but he shared honors with Ringer and LeNeau, each of whom got two hits, one of Ringer's being a double. For the Workmen, Norman was the only one who could do anything with Engbretson's offerings, he getting two hits in two trips.

Engbretson's pitching was of high order, allowing but four hits, all one base affairs, and striking out seven. He did not issue a pass. The lone score of the Workmen came in the fourth, G. Erickson getting to first on a fielder's choice, and taking third on Norman's single, and counting on a passed ball by Dillan.

Orth made a nice stop on the last play of the game, taking Tucker's boulder far to his left and nipping him at first. Engbretson made a grandstand catch in the fifth, of Howard's high fly. He misjudged the ball and had to jump backward for the catch, taking it with one hand and turning a back hand stand with the ball in his glove.

THE BRAINERD

COUNTRY CLUB

AT DEERWOOD

WILL PLAY CUYUNA RANGE GOLF CLUB ON DEERWOOD LINKS

FOURSOMES TO BE STARTED AT 1:30 P. M. ON SUN. DAY

The Brainerd Country club will play the Cuyuna Range Golf club on the Deerwood links on Sunday afternoon, August 30th, at two o'clock. Brainerd players are to be at the range links at 1:30 o'clock on that afternoon, so that foursomes can be arranged without any delays.

The Cuyuna Range club is made up of players from Crosby, Ironton, Deerwood and Aitkin, and a good game is expected. Brainerd golfers are asked to sign up for Sunday's play at the home club house just as soon as possible, in order that the exact number planning to go may be ascertained.

There are very few ladies in the range club who are active players, so there will be no match between the ladies of the two clubs on Sunday. However, the Brainerd club ladies are invited to make the trip and to try out the range course, which is said to be one of the sportiest links in this section.

The Cuyuna Range Golf club's links are just east of the village of Deerwood, along the roadway on Trunk Highway No. 2. Those unfamiliar with their location can easily find them by traveling east from Deerwood about one mile on highway No. 2.

The Brainerd club has had no match with the range players this year, and members are looking forward to Sunday's play with a great deal of anticipation. It is reported that there are some very ardent golfers and very good players in the neighboring club, so that a close play is expected.

"I could not work at all and had to take to my bed with a high fever due to intestinal indigestion, gases in my stomach and pain in my right side. I had spent my last cent for doctors and medicine, which gave me no relief. I was in despair. A lodge brother gave me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and the first dose relieved me. Thanks to this medicine I am now in the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
